ONLINE CONSULTATION

Stimulant Pharmacotherapy

International Experience and Regional Perspectives

Monday, 16 November 2026
16:00 Kyiv time

Zoom
English ↔ Russian interpretation

140 minutes
40–60 participants

0–5 MIN
Welcome and objectives
What decisions should this consultation help us make?
- Moderator, Alliance for Public Health

5–20 MIN
International evidence and recommendations
Current recommendations, pharmacotherapies under study and priorities for implementation.
- Speaker to be confirmed

20–30 MIN
Situation in Eastern Europe and Central Asia
A brief country overview: substances and patterns of use, access to treatment and major gaps.
- Regional expert, Alliance for Public Health (to be confirmed)

30–50 MIN
Ukraine: methylphenidate programme
Service model, updated observational findings, treatment retention, implementation and next steps for research.
- Maria Malakhova and Oleg Orlov — APH, Ukraine

50–65 MIN
United States
New clinical trial data on treatment for amphetamine-type stimulant use disorders.
- Prof. Frederick Altice — Yale University, USA

65–85 MIN
Czechia: clinical experience
Low-threshold care and experience with methylphenidate and dexamphetamine.
- Pavel Bém — SANANIM, Czechia

85–100 MIN
Australia: practical experience
Care for people with ADHD and substance use disorders, including experience with lisdexamfetamine.
- Nico Clark — Australia

100–130 MIN
Regional discussion
What is already happening? What can we do now? What should we plan together, and what opportunities should we pursue?
- Country partners, community and international organisation representatives

130–140 MIN
Wrap-up
Priorities, responsibilities and next steps.
- Moderator

Alliance for Public Health

Minutes from the start of the event

Register on Zoom